Project Overview

Saratoga Springs City Government seeks to enhance its vital role in the community

Project Description

- 76,500 square foot new building to accommodate growth well into the future
- Combined city hall and library functions under one roof
- Continuation of municipal campus development near Utah Lake
- Seamless integration to the amenities in the area (park, trails, recreation, etc.)

Guiding Principles

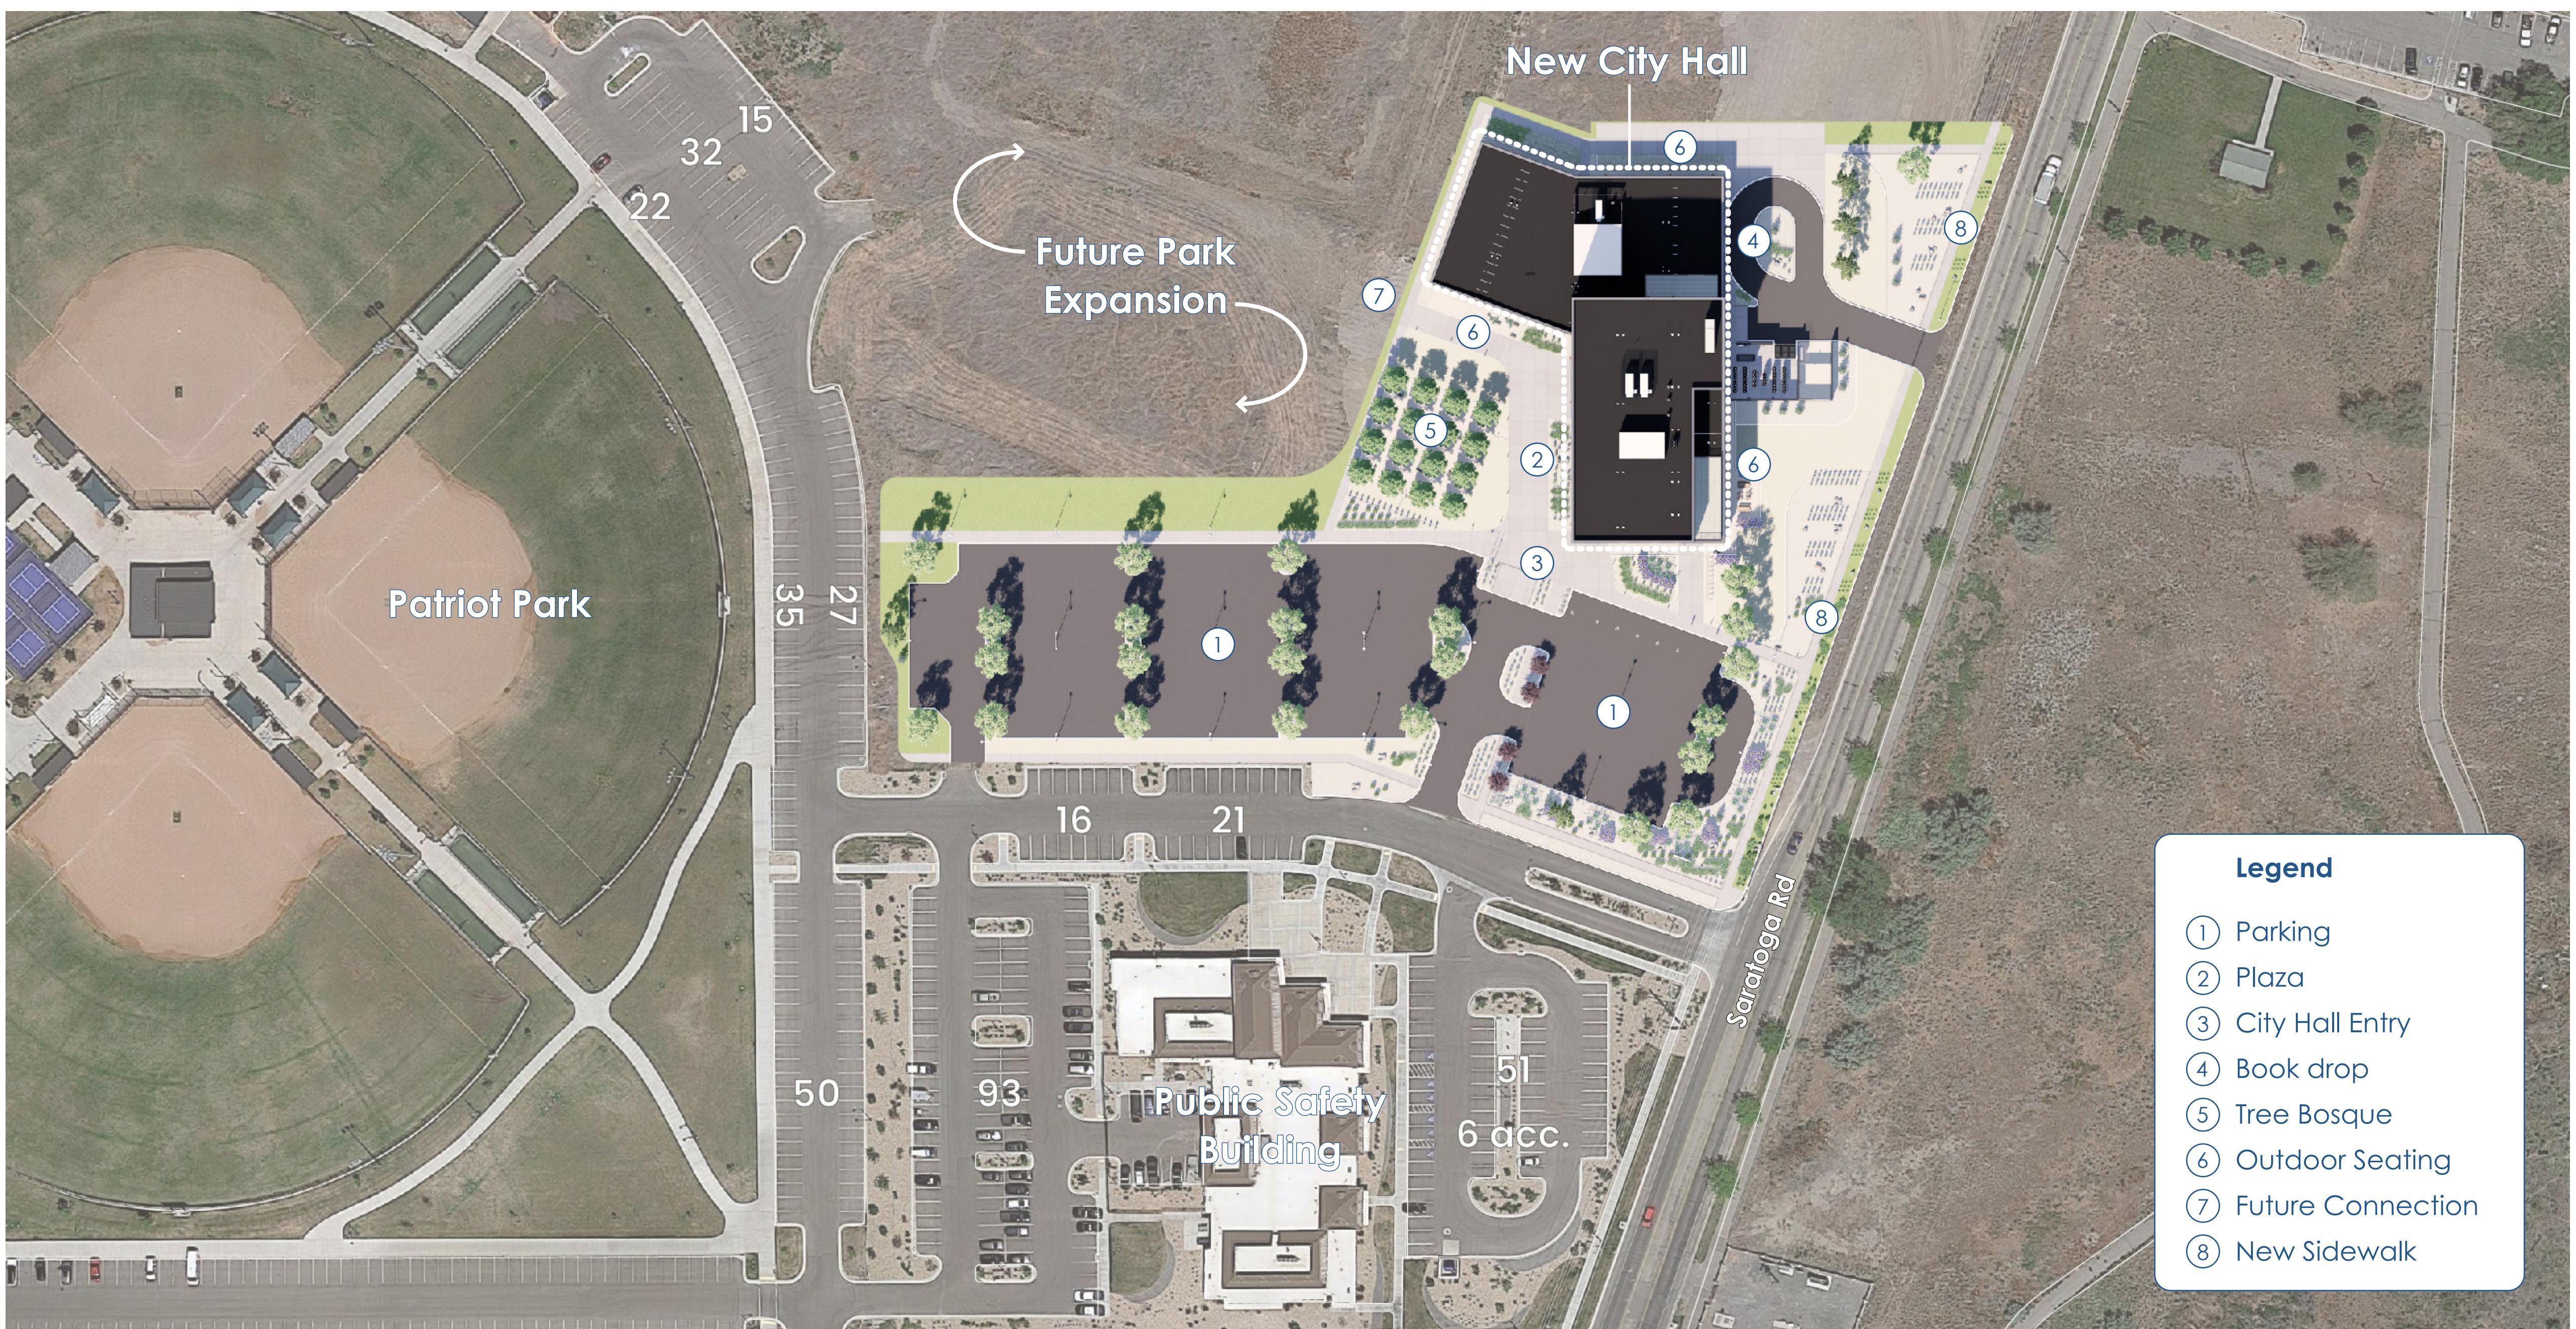

- Functional & Flexible
- Approachable & Organized
- A “Welcome Mat” & Beacon
- A forward-thinking model
- Proactive approach to development

Aspirations & Goals

- Unify community through amenities and services
- All amenities and services are accessible
- Feels like an extension of the park and landscape
- Capture views and embrace natural surrounding

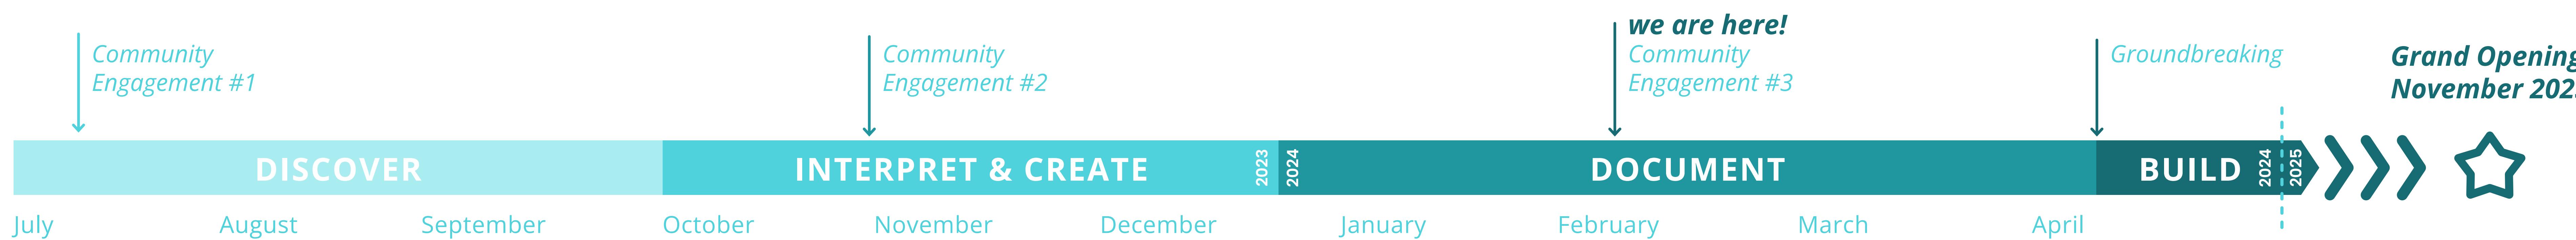

As we collaborate with MSR Design on the new building to house both city hall and library, we recognize that our needs are really about our community's needs!

Thank you for sharing your vision and your time – you are why we are here!

Community Engagement Results conducted on 07/31 - 08/01

When we asked...

What does the new building need?

- Bigger and more accessible
- Increased library collection – more books!
- More places to just “be”: reading areas, soft seating, children’s areas
- Better access to city hall services

What does a successful building feel like?

- Transactional: Spaces that focus on service and convenience, Intuitive way-finding to service counters, dignified waiting areas, frictionless customer service.
- Transformational: spaces about learning, spaces that support family and youth program, interactive children’s spaces, visual connections to nature.

Common themes we heard...

Identity and wayfinding

- A building that is easy to find and identify
- Identity extends to the landscape and outdoor spaces
- Building a sense of Saratoga springs identity that is unique to place

Connection to nature

- The city’s greatest asset is the lake and nature
- Embrace the local conditions that make this place amazing: Utah lake, mountains, river, trails, wildlife, parks, views and outdoor activities

Family & community

- Young (new) community, and young demographic
- Family-oriented people that are seeking to build connections (weaving a new tapestry)
- Building familiarity through activities and programming
